

CIVIL ENGINEER(M/W/D)

Kosice, Slovakia

YOUR JOB AS CIVIL ENGINEER in TAKENAKA

- to control subcontractor's work
- coordinates the works of individual suppliers
- checks the individual suppliers- the quality of their works
- performs site inspections and makes out the necessary records
- plans, coordinates and prepares all documents and designs connected to the specific project
- prepares the measurement statements and price budgets for the specific projects
- checks the project documentation
- draws in and records all changes in comparison to the project documentation
- verifies laws, legal and technical standards and regulations which concern the preparation of the project documentation
- prepares the necessary drafts and designs for the construction
- attends coordination meetings
- to follow environmental requirements and Waste management plan

YOU WOULD BE THE PERFECT CANDIDATE!

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in Civil Engineering
- Min. 3 years of civil engineering on site experience – an advantage
- Native level in Slovak; English
- Understanding and good application of local construction laws and by laws
- Driving license
- Excellent communication and collaboration skills: to share information, work effectively as a team member and across multi-disciplinary teams.

REASONS TO JOIN US

Over the past 50 years in Europe, our committed and highly professional team has completed more than 1,500 projects – with sustainability certifications, various awards and overall, a great reputation for high quality, detailed work. Be part of our large scale international projects and learn from our experts, step up your career by joining us!

- Experience and contribute to multidisciplinary teams, in our unique Design&Build business model.
- Work with latest technologies (BIM) and projects eligible for sustainability certifications. We are also ISO certified.